INFORMATION ABOUT OUR USE OF COOKIES

Our website uses minimal cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website.

Our website may be developed/changed over time and therefore the use of cookies may change accordingly – this policy will be updated to reflect any changes.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable administrators to log into secure areas of our website.
- Analytical/performance cookies. They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.
- Unclassified cookies. Cookies which are in the process of being classified, together with the provider of individual cookies.

Please note that third parties (including, for example, providers of external services such as web traffic analysis services) may also use cookies, over which we have no control. These third party cookies are likely to be analytical/performance cookies or targeting cookies.

You block cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including strictly necessary cookies) you may not be able to access all or parts of our site.

How we use your personal information (Data Protection)

All personal information that we may use or gain access to will be collected, processed, and held in accordance with the provisions of EU Regulation 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) and your rights under the GDPR.

You also confirm that you will comply with your obligations pertaining to GDPR while you are using our site.
